

Jeff McKenzie

Director of Clinical Operations

Jeff McKenzie was appointed Equinox's Director of Clinical Operations in February 2015. In this role he is responsible for the management of an outpatient mental health clinic serving 400 adults, an outpatient substance use program that serves 125 clients, the PROS program serving 100 adults, and a Health Home serving 350 adults.

Prior to his current position, Jeff was the Manager of the Personalized Recovery-Oriented Services Program (PROS) and managed the Intensive Outpatient Program prior to that. He started with the agency in 2008 as the Substance Abuse Coordinator in the Intensive Outpatient Program. In his time with the agency Jeff has provided treatment to hundreds of clients and has conducted over 2,000 therapeutic groups.

Jeff received his Bachelor's degree in psychology from Sage College of Albany in 2005 and his Master's degree in mental health counseling from Sage Graduate School in 2008. He is a licensed mental health counselor.

Jeff is a member of the New York State Mental Health Counselors Association. He has taught classes in psychology and criminal justice at The Sage Colleges and The College of St. Rose.

Jeff lives with his wife and family in Stillwater.
