

Kathryn A. Fletcher

COO

Kathryn A. Fletcher was appointed Chief Operating Officer at Equinox, Inc. in May 2014. As Chief Operating Officer, she is responsible for administrative oversight and program development for residential services that provide housing for victims of domestic violence, runaway homeless youth, and adults with mental illness. Ms. Fletcher also has direct oversight and coordination of the Quality Improvement Department, Facility Services Department, Health Home Care Management and Youth Outreach Services.

Prior to her current position, Ms. Fletcher was the Senior Director of Residential Services for Equinox, Inc. In the 30 years of her professional career, Ms. Fletcher has been the Director of residential programs including senior housing, intermediate care facilities, and programs with the New York State Department of Health and Office of Persons with Developmental Disabilities.

Ms. Fletcher received her Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing/Management from Siena College, and her Master's Degree in Health Services Administration from Russell Sage College. Ms. Fletcher recently completed The Leadership Advancement Series offered by The Institute for Leadership Development at Siena College in Loudonville, New York.

Ms. Fletcher is a member of various community associations including the Association for Community Living, Juvenile Justice Steering Committee, and the Runaway Homeless Youth Advisory Committee. Ms. Fletcher is also a member of the School of Business Advisory Board at Siena College and serves as a panelist for the Siena College School of Business Senior Capstone presentations.

Ms. Fletcher resides in Amsterdam, New York with her husband John and their two daughters, Katelyn and Kristina. Katelyn is a 2014 graduate of Siena College and Kristina is a 2017 graduate of Siena College.